

HERE AND THERE.

Ocala Greenhouse Co., Florists
Phone No. 2.

Mr. Frank O. Reagan returned Tuesday from a trip to Santifee.

Miss Lola Liddon returned home yesterday from her visit to Georgia.

Ma. G. Wake Wells has returned from a business trip to Gainesville.

Mr. J. D. Lucas, of the firm of Lucas & Barnes, came in from Daisy on business last evening.

Mr. L. J. Durance, of Bowling Green, has accepted a position with the Ocala Marble Works.

Mr. Tom Harris, of Jacksonville, is in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.

Mr. W. V. Koot, state auditor, is in the city on his annual tour of inspection of state records.

Mrs. L. J. Lammus leaves tomorrow for Hague to visit her daughter, Mrs. George A. Douglass.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Delouest returned from a three months' visit to friends at Hensel, Ind.

Messrs. J. B. Herick and R. J. Knight, of Crystal River, were prominent visitors to Ocala Tuesday.

Mr. Samuel David Gray, who now travels for the Egan-Skinner Company, of Jacksonville, is in the city.

Mr. Neil Weathers will leave in a week or two for New York, where he will enter Columbia University for a law course.

The many friends of Mrs. Leithner, who had her wrist broken by a fall some days ago at Griner Farm, will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly improving.

Notwithstanding the efforts of Messrs. Gribbons and Gilchrist, it now appears as if Robert McNamee will be next speaker of the house.—Palatka Times-Herald.

Marion, Sumter and Alachua have entered into good road building with much spirit and enthusiasm. Good roads are a luxury and in time will become a necessity.

"Knapton east," the large leafed plants that are used to ornament lawns, are said to be good to eat. It is used for food in Japan, Africa and elsewhere. The favorite name is the caladium.—Tampa Times.

Prof. James Varn, the popular principal of the Ocala High School, requests us to announce that unless the weather prevents the completion of the annex to the school building, school will open the first Monday in October.

The improvements on the state capital at Tallahassee have added greatly to the appearance of that structure. When the work is completed, Florida will have a statehouse that will be a credit to the commonwealth.—Tallahassee News.

The Southern Reporter, in its issue of August 16th, gives the following number of opinions by the supreme court of the several states in its columns: Alabama, 10; Mississippi, 0; Louisiana, 2; Florida, 9. For the last ten issues (from June 11th) the totals are as follows: Alabama, 91; Mississippi, 34; Louisiana, 145; Florida, 4.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Among the best features of the next Georgia State Fair, will be a village of Florida Indians in the Everglades of that state. They will come about 20 strong, and will have their tents, etc., showing just how they live in their native region. They will also have a large number of wild animals and curiosities from that state.—Valdosta Times.

A gentleman of Tibbals decided to take an outing with a friend last Sunday, and sailed over to the ocean beach to a deserted house near which was a guava orchard, and while gathering guavas off one side of the bush heard a noise on the other side, and by examining found a half grown bear there on the same errand as himself. Both were equally surprised at the meeting and each went in opposite directions.—Miami News.

Editor McCrory of the Gainesville Sun thrashed a fellow in the postoffice of that city Saturday night because he stopped his paper. The journalist was perfectly justifiable and the man ought to be satisfied that he did not get shot. Any intelligent man living in Gainesville has no good excuse for not subscribing for so good a paper as the Sun, and he deserves to be thrashed.—Tampa Tribune.

One of the latest creations of the candy studio is called pineapple pie. You grate up the fruit, add sugar and lemon juice, and in some way or other you make the lower crust just right. It is necessary to use caution here. A sort of correct cream is applied for the top layer. The result is a dream, a romance, a moonlight soiree, a sonata, a welcome home, an embrace after long parting, a well in the desert, a watered garden.

TURPENTINE OPERATORS

Hold The First Annual Meeting of the Association in Jacksonville.

Six hundred representative naval stores men from several Southern States gathered in Jacksonville Wednesday morning when President Covington of the Turpentine Operators' Association called the assemblage to order. With a few pleasant words he introduced Mayor D. U. Fletcher and afterwards Governor W. S. Jennings, to welcome the visitors and others to respond, and to speak upon subjects of the most interest to the men in the turpentine business.

The occasion was instructive and interesting, and the sessions held during the day were all conducive to the good of the turpentine men and the south.

During the morning session a number of speeches were made by the members of the association with the fullest attention and appreciation, and later, during the afternoon, a number of practical talks were heard from the factors.

The trend of opinion as best expressed in the day sessions was that the turpentine operator would best serve his own interests and that of the south by limiting his output and doing everything possible to extend the life of his trees.

Save the forests, not as a matter of sentiment, said one of the speakers, but as a matter of business.

The attention of all was directed to the stern fact that seems to have been figured out of the supply and the rate of destruction of orchards, that within fifteen years, unless there is a great change made, the supply will be exhausted, and the industry will pass out of existence.

The president's report, submitted at the afternoon meeting, was an interesting paper, and showed very clearly the splendid results accomplished by the association.

At night Wolfe's Casino was filled to the doors with men who were anxious to hear the address of Professor Herty, a government expert from the department of forestry, on turpentine, boxing, economical, effective and tree-saving, as conducted at his experimental station in Georgia.

The sessions were all full of interest, and were attended by nearly the whole number of naval stores representatives in the state.

A business meeting was held yesterday at which officers of the association were elected. We will print the entire list of officers tomorrow.

Mr. Brower Ill.

The many friends of Mr. Sylvester Brower will be pained to know that he has been very ill for the past two weeks, at Dunnellon, and at one time not expected to live. He is now only sufficiently recovered, though very feeble, to leave Tuesday noon for the mountains in Tennessee where his family reside. He will stop over a few days at several health resorts in Georgia before he reaches home and try and recover his strength, when he will proceed to Deer Lodge. When he fully recovers health and strength he will return to Florida and again become one of us.

Mr. Brower is a good man and a worthy citizen. We all wish him a speedy recovery and a safe return to Florida.

Jurors Drawn.

The following jurors have been drawn for the fall term of circuit court, which convenes the second Tuesday in October:

D. C. Stanley, S. H. Gatskill, W. E. Martin, F. B. Harper, L. K. Edwards, T. B. Griggs, May Pritchard, W. G. Gibson, Josiah Seckinger, Geo. W. Ellis, H. N. Knoblock, W. R. Fore, G. J. Proctor, F. A. Teague, C. J. Proctor, V. P. Kelsey, Jno. Gamble, W. G. Norworthy, O. W. Reagan, W. V. Weathers, R. E. Brigrance, C. G. Frazier, C. C. Milligan, W. E. Allen, Baxter Carr, J. L. Boyd, H. C. Morrison, Jas. D. Proctor, Wm. Franzak, C. H. Matthews.

Another Prosperous Colored Citizen.

Dr. W. P. Wilson, one of Ocala's most progressive colored citizens, made this year on his farm west of the city about thirteen hundred crates of cantaloupes, and says he will reap from the same ground twenty to twenty-five tons of hay. He also made 600 bushels of corn.

With plenty of such citizens no community need cry hard times—even when Wall street "squeezes."

Died.

Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock, McDonald Ansley, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.

Born.

On Monday night, to Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Connor, a son.

High Grade Ashes.

STATE FAIR NOTES.

Marion and Dade counties are the latest to make appropriations for official exhibits at the fair.

One exhibitor has entered five hundred fowls. How is that as a starter towards a poultry show?

Florida horses are to be given special attention in the races, and many entries are already made.

A daily balloon ascension with parachute drop, and a Madieval Knight's tournament in costume, for Florida riders only, to be judged by the queen of beauty, are among the attractions already arranged for.

The secretary of the State Fair should be informed of the action of each board of county commissioners making arrangements for county representation as soon as made, that full co-operation may be assured.

INGLIS ITEMS.

Mr. John W. Frazier, who has been on an extended trip to North Carolina, returned home last week.

Mrs. R. A. Alfred, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Bernice, visited friends in Ocala last week.

Mr. Johnson and little daughter, of Levyville, are visitors to our town as the guest of the former's daughter, Mrs. H. C. Price.

Messrs. D. A. and J. A. Pelling have resigned their positions with the Terminal Company and moved over on the East Coast Railway.

Mr. M. B. Fanelua, who was slightly indisposed for the past several days, is again at his usual post of duty.

The service of the ocean tug boat, James H. Clark of Tampa, has been secured for the purpose of towing the Terminal Co.'s mammoth barges of rock, to the loading pool. Charter for the second steamship has been secured for the port of Port Inglis by the Dunnellon Phosphate Co.

Mr. A. D. Bertine had the painful misfortune some days ago of getting his hand badly mashed on Dredge Boat No. 1, of the Port Inglis Terminal Co., but we hope for his speedy recovery.

The estimable family of Mr. W. J. Wright have secured the Brown house of this place and will move in this week. We welcome their return.

Mr. L. S. Edwards, of Ft. Pierce, is a caller on Monday.

Mr. W. C. Bertine is remodeling his house, which will cause it to be much larger.

GAITERVILLE.

Gaiterville is a k. this week; yes she is. Top side up with care.

We have been visited by several refreshing rains during the past few days.

Everything bids fair for fine gardens and the Gaitervillites seem to be very industrious.

Messrs. C. M. Whitten and A. R. Ross made a flying trip to Dunnellon last Saturday.

The schools of Gaiterville and Heldville are progressing nicely under the skillful management of Misses Frankie Ross and May P. Steer. Both are charming young ladies.

Messrs. H. E. Brass, Tilden Gillis and Leonard Redding, all young men of Gaiterville, were Ocala visitors Saturday.

Mr. Joe Williams, of Early Bird, was in Gaiterville again Monday.

Mr. Barnes, of Lecanto, was a Sunday visitor to Gaiterville.

Mr. A. W. Brass, of Section 7 Mine, spent Saturday night and Sunday with the old folks at home.

Rev. Rapp delivered two very interesting sermons to large congregations at Cedar Grove Sunday and Sunday night.

Best wishes says

September 9, 1902.

GRINER FARM.

Breaking corn is the order of the day and the yield is good.

A good shower of rain fell here Saturday, the first in four weeks.

Mrs. C. Leitner fell and broke her left arm last Thursday. She is getting on nicely so far. She is 82 years old.

Mr. Zetrouer of Flemington, the cattle king of Marion county, was visiting here Sunday.

Mr. James Lufman and family have moved here from Connor. We welcome you and your family in our midst, "Jim."

Mr. James Milligan is on the sick list at present.

Mr. Milo Halsell is furnishing us with beef just now.

Mr. Warren Milligan is fencing his land here preparatory for planting.

Impaired Digestion

May not be all that is meant by dyspepsia now, but it will be if neglected. The uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, sourness of the stomach, and disagreeable belching may not be very bad now, but they will be if the stomach is suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a miserable disease that the tendency to it should be given early attention. This is completely overcome by

Mrs. Perdue Appointed Marion's Lady Commissioner.

To the Editor Ocala Banner:
I desire to inform all whom it may concern, that through a strong personal appeal from me, Miss Jessie Owens has kindly agreed to duplicate at the State Fair at Lake City her mammoth personal exhibit of 1901 at Jacksonville, and take personal charge of it at Lake City during the State Fair.

Mrs. M. L. Perdue, of Ocala, has been appointed Lady Commissioner of Marion county, to work up an exhibit from the ladies of the county at large, and take charge of it during the State Fair. She will at once enter upon her official duties. Mrs. H. W. Long will act as her assistant.

I rely upon all of our standbys of last year to rally to her aid, and hundreds of others.

H. W. LONG.

And Still Another Graceful and Pleasant Compliment.

Editor Harris is an ornament to Florida journalism. He is one of the most staunch democrats in the south, he is a patriot in the fullest sense of the word and because of his superior judgment and wonderful ability he has advocated the prosperity of Florida and sought in inimitable manner to encourage immigration, capitalists and investors to assist in developing Florida and making it bloom and blossom as the rose, he has incurred the animosity of those populistically inclined and they have, by contemptible insinuations, endeavored to cast reflections upon his motives. Mr. Harris is no office seeker or politician out of a job. He has no aspirations to be governor of this state. Through a spirit of journalistic admiration the Tribune mentioned him as an ideal possibility for gubernatorial honors and it pains us to note such hysterical vapors of ignorance who are unfit to even unlace his shoes, and incompetent to pass judgment on a gentleman.—Tampa Tribune.

A State Fair Edition.

The Ocala Banner, with its characteristic enterprise and vim is preparing to publish a State Fair Edition of that excellent publication about October 1. Mr. L. J. Brumby, a special representative of the paper, is in Tampa and will interview the business men of this city relative to taking space in it. The Tribune hopes that the business people of Tampa will give the special edition a generous patronage. The Banner, besides being the oldest paper in Florida is one of the best, and its large circulation will give our people a fine opportunity to get before a constituency heretofore never reached. Mr. Brumby is an experienced newspaper man and one of the most graceful writers in Florida and if given an opportunity will write Tampa up in such a fascinating manner that it will do it incalculable good.—Tampa Tribune.

Flagler and the Indians.

An official of the Indian office in Washington says that he will not again criticize Mr. Henry M. Flagler, who is the owner of more things in Florida than any other man. Mr. Flagler is at the head of several railroad companies, and one of his standing orders is that no Indian shall pay fare on any of his roads. There are about 600 Seminole Indians in Florida and they live along the Flagler railroads. The whole territory on which they reside was once the property of these Indians, and it is said Mr. Flagler does not believe they have been treated by the whites, who appropriated their lands to themselves, altogether in a spirit of fairness. At any rate, the order referred to recompenses them in some little degree.

Gilchrist Is a Candidate.

Albert W. Gilchrist, recently nominated for the legislature in De Soto county by a vote of two to one over his opponent, will be a candidate for the next speaker of the house. Should he be elected he will add luster to the position and reflect great credit upon his county and the state. While not championing his cause we will not be disappointed should he gain the prize. Mr. Gilchrist is a gentleman of fine ability and long experience in public affairs.—Brooksville Argus.

A Badly Needed Law.

Sheriff Nugent says if there is one law more than another that should have the attention of the next legislature it is one making it a crime to conceal a criminal or assist one in eluding the officers of the law.

He says that such a law would aid in bringing to justice many desperate characters who now roam at large. It seems that at present there is no law against assisting any one charged with a misdemeanor.

BANKING.

We are Thoroughly Convinced That Customer's Best Interests are Not Served When Banks are so Liberal as to Make No Profit on Their Accounts.
We Cordially Invite all Paying Business.

Munroe & Chambliss, Bankers.
Ocala, Florida.

Editor Stovall Showing Honors on to Others.

Editor Stovall, of the Tampa Tribune, is preparing for big business the coming winter, and has ordered a new fast press and another Mergenthaler machine. Probably Stovall is preparing facilities to publish his annual messages to the Legislature when elected Governor, Jacksonville Metropolis. You are mistaken. We are not living in this mundane sphere for glory and political preferment. It is no sentiment with us. Everything is practical, and we are after the "dust," and have an idea that there is more money in conducting the Tribune than there is in being Governor of Florida. The modern machinery that the Tribune will install only prepares us better to print the gubernatorial message of our esteemed friend, Frank Harris, the veteran journalist of Florida, and one of the bravest men in the south, and tell the people about the race of John N. C. Stockton for the United States Senate. The Tribune is not in politics, and wants no office within the gift of the people.—Tampa Tribune.

Bad Men are the Bachelors.

Dr. E. B. Andrews, Chancellor of the University of Nebraska, goes for bachelors in the following manner: "Bachelors are moral degenerates. From them emanate most of the sin and shame of the world. They are lacking in mental and physical poise. The life of no individual is complete unless he or she have a life companion of the opposite sex."

"Providence intended that men and women should marry. The world was made for the family and not for the individual. The unmarried individual of marriageable age has no place in society or in the scheme of the universe. Marriage is a good thing. The great men and women of the world—the ones whose lives were symmetrical and whose works were best for posterity—have been married."

The Gubernatorial Crop of Candidates.

The DeFuniak Breeze thinks that George W. Wilson, editor of the Times-Union and Citizen, W. F. Stovall, editor of the Tampa Tribune, D. H. Mays, of Monticello, and W. H. Milton, of Marianna, may already be considered active candidates for gubernatorial honors. Both of the editors named have repeatedly declared a preference for the work they are at present engaged in and have probably never given the matter of running for governor a second thought. Messrs. Mays and Milton will not doubt be candidates for governor. They both were two years ago.—Starke Telegraph.

Best in the World.

It is said by responsible parties that Ocala and the country surrounding it are in better shape now than ever before the freeze. The former orange growers are now devoting their time to raising the necessities of life, and are building up prosperity that is solid and substantial.—Tampa Herald.

President Teddy is talking a great deal, but is not saying much.

The arrangement of President Roosevelt's trip to St. Louis on the occasion of the allotment of sites for state buildings, provides for his arrival in that city on October 1. He will visit the World's Fair grounds to attend the ceremonies in the afternoon of the 1st and will remain overnight in the city, leaving on the 2nd. Twenty-two states and territories will be represented, probably twenty of them by their governors and World's Fair commissions, the others by their commissioners. Several of the governors will be accompanied by their staffs. A vast assemblage of the people of many states is expected on this occasion, as the twenty-four railway systems which have their terminals in St. Louis have announced excursion rates from every direction.

Any man who will voluntarily contribute for an office to any three years before it is to be held, as John N. C. Stockton has done, desiring to be interviewed by the Tampa Tribune, Zerkow can testify to the fact that a Tribune interview means "death in the pot."—Jasper News.
